Senior Portfolio
On their final semester, AMES majors should turn in a "senior portfolio." The dossier is a capstone that recognizes your work and expertise in the language and culture you chose to work on. It will aid your search for a job and/or application for graduate programs. Most of the documents requested for the dossier are materials you have generated already in your regular coursework. The portfolio includes: Short Reflective Essay, Coursework and related curricular and extracurricular pursuits, Papers, Creative work, Translations and Publications.
